MAR 1976
RECEIVED
SECRETARY OF STATE

WHEREAS, In his retirement from the Public Utilities Commission, Emil J. Mueller has triumphantly completed two highly successful careers; and,

WHEREAS, For forty-six years Emil worked for the Chicago and North-western Railroad--the bulk of his time dealt with handling rate cases before the Interstate Commerce Commission--which he carried out admirably and with great skill; and,

WHEREAS, We are fortunate that Emil brought his legal expertise with him to South Dakota, where for the past five years he has faithfully and conscientiously served the State in regulatory matters with the Public Utilities Commission with special emphasis on railroad law; and,

WHEREAS, Through his diligence and hard work Emil managed to hold in abeyance--and stop--two South Dakota rail abandonment requests--this is akin to batting about .800 in the Big Leagues; and,

WHEREAS, Through Christian commitment, Emil and his wife, Paula have led their lives by a moral code that is a shining example for all of us to follow; and,

WHEREAS, Special note should be taken that Paula--a native born South Dakotan--was instrumental in helping make the decision that determined that Emil was to spend the past years working in South Dakota, and she should also have our thanks for our good fortune; and,

WHEREAS, In retirement Emil and Paula will live in California, and will be missed not only by State Government, but by their many friends;and,

WHEREAS, March 31, 1976, will mark Emil's final day of employment with the State of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, March 31, 1976, as

EMIL AND PAULA MUELLER DAY

In South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 23rd day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Six
